

Cynthia Silvaraju
LL.B (Hons.) London, CLP,
PDIA (MiArb)

Ms. Cynthia Silvaraju, graduated from the law school in the year 2010. Before embarking into the Certificate of Legal Practice Examination she gained vast knowledge in the Conveyancing Practice as a Para Legal with various legal firms for a total of 7 valuable years. Among others the reputable firms includes Messrs Fauzi Ngah & Neasa, Messrs Wang Kuo Shing & Co and Messrs Kumari Palany & Co.

She was later offered a job at the Echelon Claims Consultant Sdn Bhd (Echelon), a third party Claims Administrator appointed by the Insurer under the Professional Indemnity Insurance Scheme. She was holding a position as a Claims Executive, assisting the Malaysian Bar Professional Indemnity Insurance Department (M Bar PII Dept), where she acts as the command centre between the Insured Practice, the Insurer and the Panel Solicitors. Over the years of her service at the M Bar PII Dept she has gained enormous knowledge, particularly with respect to the negligent claims filed against an Advocate and Solicitor.

In the year 2015, she was offered to pursue her carrier at the Advocates and Solicitors Disciplinary Board (ASDB). A Board that adjudicates on complaints of professional misconduct against an Advocate and Solicitor or Pupil or a Foreign Lawyer registered under the Legal Profession Act 1976. She led the legal team as a Senior Legal Officer for 5 years. She resigned from the said position in the year 2020 with an intention to explore her passion into the Legal Practice.

Her current areas of practice involves Conveyancing (Sale and Purchase Agreement & Banking Documentations), Insolvency and Winding up, Probate Administration, drafting of Will, Trust, various Agreements, which includes but not limited to Shareholders Agreement and Partnership Agreement. Through the experience that she has gained from Echelon and ASDB, she expresses that Lawyers have great professional responsibility and that all lawyers are held to a high ethical standard. Hence, maintaining the integrity of the Profession is the task that she undertakes to uphold throughout her Legal career.

Ms. Cynthia Silvaraju is a committed lawyer who believes in exploring all possible legal alternatives in achieving optimal resolutions in the interest of her client.
