Meenachi Kamala Karan, the founder and managing partner of Azlan Meena & Partners, graduated with a Bachelor of Finance from University Utara Malaysia in 2004. After her graduation, she was offered the position of Inventory Accountant within the Accounting Department at the Asia Pacific Accounting Center, IBM Malaysia. After a year, she was offered an esteemed position as Assistant Vice President of the Accounts Department at the Bank of Tokyo Mitsubishi UFJ Malaysia Berhad. She continued at this bank for seven (7) years. She is well versed within the banking industry and has established professional rapport with the bankers.

Her passion to upgrade herself made her embark in law at the University of Malaysia in 2006. She did part-time law classes on weekends whilst working at the Bank of Tokyo on weekdays. Her hard work had paid off and she completed her Bachelor of Jurisprudence with Honours. She further obtained her Certificate in Legal Practice from the Legal Profession Qualifying Board, Malaysia in the following year itself.

She decided to venture into law and resigned from the Bank of Tokyo to chamber in Messrs Rusmah Arunan & Associates. There, she attended to various types of civil litigation matters, property transactions including sales and purchase of properties with corresponding banking and financing aspects besides corporate matters. Her experience and exposure in litigation in the said firm strengthened through practice in other legal firms. She had engaged in defence work and litigated matters for insurance companies such as Allianz, Liberty, and Etiqa. She has represented some corporate giants in court such as Indah Water and Tenaga Nasional Berhad.

Her never ending enthusiasm in always upgrading herself motivated her to complete her Masters from Taylors University in Master of Healthcare and Medical Law. In the midst of acquiring legal and practical knowledge, she has honed her skills to become an effective leader in her sphere of work. Through her determination, dedication, and discipline, Ms. Meenachi is a committed lawyer professing integrity and dedication in all aspects of her profession.
